Six In Running For Two Village Commission Seats

—Lots of Candidates

Sidney's village election pot boiled over this week as candidates came forward in increasing numbers. At press time no less than six candidates have entered the contest for two seats on the commission which will be vacated at the end of the year.

Retiring commissioners are C. J. Douma and R. C. Martman. Candidates in the order of announcing their intention of contesting the election are: C. J. Douma, Mrs. Vivian Cowan, Joe Bilgeri, Frank Hunt, R. C. Martman and L. R. Christian.

BY DECEMBER 1

Some of the candidates have already filed nomination papers with Returning Officer A. W. Sharp at the village hall. All must be filed before noon on Dec. 1.

Retiring Commissioner Douma, first to announce his candidature in the forthcoming election, issued the following statement to The Review this week: "Since my election to office two years ago, much has taken place. During that time I have derived much personal satisfaction in feeling that I have, to the best of my knowledge, done a small bit for the community in which I live. And with the experience gained in the past two years, I feel that I am in a better position to work for the steady progress and improvement to the village. On my record and the work done during the past two years by the commissioners, I again ask your support at the polls."

FIRST LADY

Mrs. Vivian Cowan, Sidney widow and the first lady to seek election to Sidney's commission, outlined her platform in a recent issue of this newspaper. This week she elaborated her stand by making two points clear. She stands for the improvement of conditions of refuse disposal now in effect in the village. She also contends that blanket restrictions on parking, such as outlined in a proposed village by-law, are definitely not the answer to the parking problem.

Joe Bilgeri, milk distributor and resident of the village, who has previously contested two village elections unsuccessfully, outlined his platform to The Review. He suggests that one commissioner take charge of the new refuse disposal plant and has agreed to assume this task. He strongly opposes blanket restrictions on parking in the commercial area, feeling that if restrictions prove necessary they should be put into effect over a minimum area as a start, and gradually developed. Blanket restrictions, such as proposed by some commissioners, would be a serious detriment to the community, he contends. Mr. Bilgeri is also strongly opposed to payment being made to commissioners. "Personally, if elected, I will refuse to accept any remuneration until Sidney is a model village," he promised.

THREE POINTS
Frank Hunt, garage operator, who resides in Sidney, is sponsored as a candidate by a ratepayers group now in process of formation. He has a three-point platform: (1) improved methods of garbage disposal; (2) strong opposition to blanket parking restrictions; and (3) no payment to members of the commission.

Retiring Commissioner R. C. Martman, who previously had announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election, announced his candidature as follows: "I have changed my mind and have again decided to enter my name in the forthcoming election for commissioner for the village of Sidney. There are several problems of importance that will be discussed and decided on this coming year and with my previous experience on the commission, I can assure you I will do my best to see that these projects are accomplished to the best interest of the village. Your support will be appreciated. Thank you."

At press time no outline of his platform had been received from the remaining candidate, L. R. Christian, a Sidney retail businessman.

The election is scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 8. The returning officer states that there are 740 names on the voters list.

Youthful Tractor Driver

Newcomer among 4-H activities on the Saanich Peninsula is the boys' tractor club. Heading the list at the close of the first contest sponsored by the group this year was David Allen, of Saanichton. He is shown above at the recent presentation of prizes proudly accepting the new trophy from the hands of Leo Strutt, of Victoria. David is marking two firsts, first prize and first contest.

THREE CANDIDATES

Election Is Assured In Central Saanich

Election in Central Saanich was assured this week with the announcement from Councillor Harold Andrew that he would seek to retain his seat and from ex-Councillor R. M. Lamont that he would also be in the election contest.

Both candidates, who will vie with Councillor P. F. Warren, were members of the first council of Central Saanich, elected when secession from Saanich was accomplished.

A referendum is to be offered on road construction and another on library services are to be presented. The former will ask ratepayers to approve the construction of new roads wholly on a local improvement basis and the latter will offer a continuance of the present library agreement in a modified form or else an abandonment of the bookmobile service.

No name has been mentioned in connection with Saanich school board. Trustee R. C. Derrinberg previously stated that he would run only if no alternative was forthcoming.

TEACHERS SEEK PAY INCREASE

School District No. 64, Salt Spring, salary committee met representatives of the teachers' salary committee on Saturday, Nov. 26.

Teachers have requested an increase which would amount to an addition in total salaries of approximately $5,000 per year, under present government regulations this would be borne by local taxpayers. The trustees are giving this matter their earnest consideration.

SKELETON IS FOUND ON BEACH AT ISLAND

Skeleton discovered on Shell Island is being examined by provincial authorities. The bones were collected by the R.C.M.P. detachment and the examination will indicate their origin.

They may prove to be the grim relic of a boat disaster in local waters, or they may be the remains of an Indian buried in the vicinity of the Shell Island beach.

LIBRARY SERVICE TO BE DECIDED

Referendum To Provide For New System of Charging

For the second time in the short history of Central Saanich municipality ratepayers will cast a ballot at the end of the year on the question as to whether library and bookmobile services are to be continued in the district.

Shortly after incorporation of Central Saanich ratepayers supported wholeheartedly the provision of both these services. At that time the cost was estimated at less than $5,000. The cost of the services has steadily risen since that time until it now stands at an anticipated $6,400.

Ratepayers this time will be asked to approve either a further agreement with the Victoria public library or to reject the bookmobile and restrict service to the use of the city library. Keen proponent of library service, Councillor J. B. Windsor has stated on several occasions that the elimination of the bookmobile is a means of cutting costs by improving ratepayers' use of the library.

BASED ON USAGE
In the past the cost of library services have been based on usage. The result of this provision has been a greater burden on those municipalities populated by keen readers. Central Saanich, with a population of 2,000, paid $5,200 last year against Esquimalt's $8,000, although the latter municipality boasts almost five times the population.

During the course of a number of meetings between municipal representatives and library board members it was argued that the costs of the library were to be met irrespective of whether borrowing was at a high or a low level. Charging on the rate of borrowing, it was stated, was an indirect means of discouraging reading altogether. First recommendation was a straight per-capita basis of charging. By this means the charges would be in direct proportion to the total costs of operation and the ratio of division between participating municipalities would vary but slightly. Esquimalt, faced with an increased charge from $4,000 to $16,000 opposed the recommendation and threatened to withdraw if it were implemented.

A compromise scheme was proposed whereby each participating

Commercial Electric Rate Down

—Wide Area

Electric rate changes, which will benefit commercial customers in rural areas of Vancouver Island south, including Central Saanich, North Saanich and Sidney, will be effective January 1, the Review has learned.

The revised commercial schedules, approved for filing by the Public Utilities Commission, follow intensive studies made of the rural areas by the B.C. Electric.

The revision take into account the commercial load factor and the changing character of suburban business activity.

The changes are as follows:

PRESENT RATE

First 500 kwh per month at 5.75c per kwh. All additional kwh per month at 4c per kwh.

EFFECTIVE JAN. 1

First 65 kwh per month at 5.75c per kwh. Next 435 kwh per month at 4.6c per kwh. All additional kwh per month at 2.85c per kwh. Monthly minimum of $1 per meter remains unchanged.

The discussions in Sidney with the company's sales representatives were conducted by a committee from the Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce, comprising H. B. Bewley, Gordon Hulme, Harold Fox, M. R. Eaton and J. S. Rivers.

BOY SCOUTS RAISE $70

Total of $67.78 was collected by Boy Scouts of Sidney on Saturday when they celebrated a belated Apple Day.

The day had been postponed consistently for several weeks as inclement weather persisted.

SIDNEY RESIDENT CALLED BY DEATH

The death occurred at his Sidney residence on Wednesday of Harmon Tandy Peter, aged 68 years. He lived on Salt Spring Island before moving to Sidney a year ago. His widow survives in Sidney. Funeral services will be conducted from Sands Sidney Chapel on Saturday afternoon by Rev. R. Melville and interment will follow in Royal Oak Burial Park.

Breakwater Only Answer

Says Public Works Minister

Hon. R. H. Winters, federal minister of public works, paid a visit to Sidney wharf on Wednesday morning and inspected facilities of his department there.

Asked by The Review how he felt that protection could be provided for visiting yachts while customs is being cleared, the minister replied: "I cannot see any answer to your problem but construction of a breakwater. These transient vessels unquestionably bring a great deal of commerce to Canada. I will analyze the breakwater situation in Sidney on my return to Ottawa."

The minister was met at Sidney wharf by Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P., representatives of Sidney village commission headed by Chairman H. Bradley, officers of Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce and prominent Sidney Liberals. With officials of State of Washington Ferries he inspected the ferry's facilities.

A comprehensive brief on proposed development of the Port of Sidney, prepared jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and Village of Sidney, was given to Mr. Winters.

Gulf Islanders To Settle Fate of Hospital Thursday

—Plan Requires Two-Thirds Majority

Keen interest is being evidenced throughout the Gulf Islands in a plebiscite which will be voted upon on Thursday, Dec. 8, in which the fate of the proposed new Lady Minto Gulf Islands hospital at Ganges will be decided. Construction of the new hospital will be proceeded with if the majority of those who vote is greater than 66 2/3 per cent.

Maurice Atkins, of Ganges, is returning officer, and polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Deputy returning officers have been named as follows:

North Galiano: Mrs. Baines.
South Galiano: Mrs. Carminster.
Ganges: J. Jones, T. Parsons and Dr. Ira White.
Mayne: W. W. Hunt-Sowery.
Saturna: Not yet appointed.
North Pender: Ernest Sedgwick.
South Pender: E. Pritchard.
Fulford: A. Davis.
Musgrave: J. A. Smith.

Voters may cast their ballots only at their own polling stations.

ISSUES STATEMENT

Gavin C. Mouat, of Ganges, chairman of the hospital district's board of trustees and the donor of the land for the site of the new hospital, to The Review issued the following statement this week:

"On behalf of the trustees of Gulf Islands Hospital Improvement District No. 9, I would say that the trustees have, insofar as they have power, made a sincere effort to see that the forthcoming plebiscite is submitted to the ratepayers in a simple, intelligent and fair manner.

"At the request of the trustees, arrangements for taking the vote are being carried out under instruction from, and supervision of, Mr. F. Hurley, chief electoral officer for our province.

"The wording of the ballot, as recommended by the trustees, is being used and the trustees believe that this wording is based on simple facts and that it sets out the question to be voted on in a simple, clear and direct manner. The trustees are most anxious to have the opinions of as large a number of the ratepayers as possible and therefore urge every ratepayer, who can, to appear at their respective polling booths and vote on this important question."

SPEAKERS OUTLINE PROBLEMS

Only $8,000 Away From Moving Airport Hall

Sidney and North Saanich Community Hall Association is within $8,000 of the figure required to move the recreation hall from the west camp of Patricia Bay Airport to Sidney.

The figure was given to Sidney Rotary Club on Wednesday evening of last week by Sanscha President G. F. Gilbert. Mr. Gilbert was a guest speaker. He explained the extensive effort already made by his organization, which had collected $11,000 for the hall project, since it was formed. The group has also acquired the hall from the department of transport, arranged a site at the Memorial Park on Beacon Ave., and ascertained detailed figures for the completion of the project.

Mr. Gilbert referred to the problems which had faced the organization since the acquisition of the hall. It had been planned to move the hall intact. The estimates for this moving job had been all above $20,000 and difficulties were experienced in gaining permission to draw it across the runways at the airport.

Later plans to move it envisaged its partial stripping and re-assembly.

New Field

MRS. AISLA ROTHERY

New field of theatrical endeavor is currently being explored by Peninsula Players. In response to requests from parents in the district the histrionic group is planning the presentation of a children's theatre. First production will be "Tinsel and Gaiety" and will be directed by Ailsa Rothery. Working with the drama company will be Mrs. P. A. Spear, chairman of Sidney Recreation Commission, who is training the youthful choreographers for the dance routines. Music is composed and arranged by Mrs. Jack Mitchell. The play will be presented at North Saanich high school auditorium on Friday and Saturday Dec. 30 and 31.

DISAPPEARANCE OF YOUNGSTER MYSTERIOUS

Mystery surrounds the disappearance of a young boy who rented a boat from a Brentwood bathhouse on Sunday and has not been seen since. Jimmy Page, 13, Victoria, hired the 18-foot inboard boat on Sunday at midday announcing his intention of returning within an hour or so. When he failed to return the same day police were notified and a search was instigated. The vessel was later found tied up at Mill Bay, but no sign of the boy has been found. Described as blond, with blue eyes, the missing boy is 64 inches tall and weighs 135 pounds.

SON OF SIDNEY FAMILY WEDS IN PRETTY VICTORIA CEREMONY

At the Church of St. George the Martyr, Rev. William Hills recently solemnized the marriage of Miss Isobel Fairley Wilkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Seaton Wilkinson, of Victoria, to Douglas Cyrus Peck, youngest son of Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., and Mrs. Peck, of Sidney.

The lovely and petite bride, gowned in white brocade, ballerina style, entered the church on the arm of her father. She wore matching Juliet cap of white feathers and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds interspersed with white satin rushing.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Patricia Ann Seaton Wilkinson, in a ballerina style dress of pastel pink swiss organza over matching taffeta crinoline. Her Juliet cap was pink and she carried a complementary bouquet.

The groom had his brother, Edward R. Peck as best man, while Lieut-Col. H. W. J. Peck, Vancouver, and John C. S. Wilkinson, brother of the bride acted as ushers.

The altar was banked with white chrysanthemums for the occasion, while baskets of chrysanthemums in pastel shades flanked the altar.

During the signing of the register, Miss Jane Schofield sang "O Perfect Love".

DOUGLAS PECK

Receiving guests with the bridal party were the parents of the bride and groom. Mr. Wilkinson chose a charcoal grey dress while Mrs. Peck wore a Julian Rose gown of beige lace with matching velvet hat with gold trim.

Following a wedding trip through Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Peck will reside in Montreal.

Heavy reliance on world markets for Canadian exports coupled with cutthroat competition from foreign products at home, renders Canada vulnerable to the slightest increase in product costs.

SAANICHTON CHURCH BAZAAR RAISES $200 IN AFTERNOON

Shady Creek church held a most successful tea and bazaar on the afternoon of Saturday, Nov. 26, in the Saanichton Agricultural hall dining-room, which was beautifully decorated in Christmas colors. It even sported a television set, courtesy of Butler Bros., for the occasion, so that visitors need not miss the Grey Cup football finals. Rev. W. Buckingham opened the affair to the public, after which approximately 100 persons enjoyed the delicious lunch served by members of the W.A. and their many willing helpers.

LIVELY BUSINESS

A bountiful supply of choice home cooking, beautiful sewing, and attractive miscellaneous items was very generously donated for the various stalls which did a lively business, particularly during the earlier part of the afternoon.

The gratifying sum of more than $200 was realized for continuing work on the new Sunday school room as a direct result of the splendid co-operative effort.

KEATING

Mrs. J. Breitenbach, of Oldfield Road, and Miss Gladys Battye were joint hostesses at a kitchen shower, held at the home of the former, Friday evening, to honor Mrs. John Ruryk, who was married November 1. Corsages of pink rosebuds and pink carnations were presented to the bride and her mother, Mrs. W. Battye. The gifts were presented in a gaily decorated basket. During the course of the evening highly interesting slides were shown by Gladys Battye of some of her travels. Those present were Mesdames W. Battye, S. Carr, N. F. Breitenbach, S. Campbell, B. Oldfield, W. Knott, A. Francis, R. Guthrie, A. Bolster, J. Matte, G. McCarthy and Miss M. Bowsfield.

Mrs. Fred Callender, who with her husband and young son, has recently returned to this district to reside, was the guest of honor at a "stork" shower held at the home of Mrs. M. Ronnell, Central Saanich Road, Saturday evening. The guest of honor was presented the gifts in a beautifully decorated box. Games and contests were enjoyed and then a delicious lunch served. Those present were Mesdames C. Phillips, J. Flynn, W. Wonnacott, K. Sandwyth, C. Cronk, J. Wooton, R. Mather, T. Sandwyth, K. Pedersen, A. Pedersen and Miss Greta Pedersen. Those unable to attend were Mesdames F. W. Conconi R. Blake, V. Gait, K. Gillespie.

There will also be a fishpond and a candy stall for the children, and of course tea will be served. Members of the guild are keeping their fingers crossed, hoping for a fine day so that a big crowd will turn out for the affair.

Councillor and Mrs. John Windsor, Stellis Cross Road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son at St. Joseph's hospital, on Nov. 22.

GUIDE COMPANY IS DISBANDED

Guide company at Saanichton has been disbanded. The local association of Guides met at the home of Mrs. James Wheeler, East Saanich Road, recently to discuss the problems of accommodation for the company. No adequate facilities could be found and the decision to disband the company was reached.

Mr. Wheeler showed some slides of Tokyo, Pearl Harbour and the Orient which had been taken by Peter Wheeler while he served in that territory.

Guide Mistress Mrs. A. R. Mills was presented with three teaspoons, bearing the Guide emblem by the Guide company.

in the afternoon instead of sharing with the Community Club at night. At this Christmas party all the parents are cordially invited to come, with refreshments being served. A very interesting talk was given by F. J. Willway, principal of Royal Oak elementary school, on "Progress in children's books education to the present day." The next meeting will be held on Founder's Day, Feb. 22.

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT?

THE community of North Saanich would welcome a Christmas present from the provincial highways department. In its stocking on Christmas morning this community would like to find a passable road along Fifth Street between Lochside Drive and the Village of Sidney. A major job of reconstructing this heavily-travelled highway section was begun late last fall. No sooner had the surface been torn up by work crews than the rains descended and the floods came. Today the road is a hopeless quagmire. Motorists are discouraged from attempting to negotiate it by large barriers, proclaiming that the road is under repair.

It's just possible that a Churchill tank might travel this road. But no ordinary automobile could do so. Motorists have to drive long distances out of their way because of the obstruction. The highways department started this job with its eyes open. It must have some plan of completing the work so that traffic can be resumed before next spring. It's high time that this plan was put into effect.

BATTLE LINES ARE DRAWN

DURING the past week enough candidates have entered the race for two seats on the Sidney village commission to ensure a very lively election. Last week at this time only two hats were in the ring and the possibility of acclamations loomed large. Today, however, no less than six property owners have signified their intentions of running—and more may come along before nomination day, December 1.

Issues of the forthcoming village election have clarified during the past week. Two retiring candidates are again in the field, seeking re-election on the record of the commission during the past 12 months. Some of their opponents take strong issue with some of the commission's recent actions. They oppose strongly the present method of garbage disposal, the commission's proposal to place a blanket restriction on parking throughout the village's commercial area and the unanimous decision of the commissioners to pay themselves a salary.

These are issues enough. It will be for the electorate to decide democratically who is to occupy the two vacant chairs during the next two years.

THE CORRECT VIEW

BOARD of trustees of Saanich School District No. 63 arrived at the right answer. We refer to the board's decision to discuss with representatives of the Sidney village commission the possibility of the two administrative bodies erecting a common office building. Under the plan as suggested by the village fathers, a new and modern administration centre could be erected at a material saving in cost.

What surprises us is that there should be any objection to such negotiations. For it is difficult for The Review to visualize any commissioner or trustee who would not be willing and anxious to save taxpayers every dollar possible. If the plan does not encompass a real cash saving to taxpayers—many of them paying taxes to both the village and for education—it is worthless. But if it saves even a fraction of a mill on the taxes of already overburdened property owners, it has much to commend it.

To our certain knowledge, a combined administrative building works very smoothly in Mission City, B.C. There it has saved the taxpayers money. The Review knows of no reason why such a project could not be made to work here, provided representatives of both the commission and the school board approach it co-operatively and harmoniously. The electorate expects at least that much of them.

Letters To The Editor

UNTRUE

Editor, Review.

I trust that you will extend to me through your columns the privilege of replying to Mr. Pickles' letter on the subject of Central Saanich zoning.

First of all, may I remark that I am deeply grieved that a former reeve of this municipality should have adopted such an obstructionist, one hesitates to say demagogic, attitude to such an important subject. Mr. Pickles, both in the public meeting and in his letter, has made absolutely no contribution whatsoever to this matter.

This by-law has not any sweeping provisions, nor does it prevent any landowner from subdividing his land and any assertions to the contrary are simply not true. Untrue also is the statement that if all land were residential a zoning by-law would not be required. The ratepayers have to face the fact that population in this municipality is increasing rapidly and they can either allow indiscriminate subdivision with its expensive and wasteful costs of providing municipal services or they can control development so that the taxpayer gets the most out of his tax dollar.

As chairman of the Town Planning Commission I deeply resent Mr. Pickles' implication of bureaucratic tendencies either in the Capital Region Planning Board or in our own Town Planning Commission. Mr. Weisman, the Capital Region Planning Director, is an expert in his field and has been extremely helpful and co-operative at all times. If, as Mr. Pickles states, the ratepayers feel they are not receiving good value for the $200 a year they pay the Capital Region Planning Board, perhaps they would like to engage the services of a private town planning expert at, say, $2,000 per year.

In conclusion, may I remark that I am only too glad to receive the opinions of the ratepayers on town planning, either by letter or in person, but I do hope that any criticism levelled at the Commission will be constructive and objective and not simply criticism for the sake of criticism.

C. R. LEIGHTON,
Chairman, Saanich Town Planning Commission,
R.R. 1, Saanichton, B.C.

NOT ALL IN FAVOR

Editor, Review.

My recent letter on the subject of the proposed hospital at Ganges elicited the facts that The Review enjoys a very wide circulation and that the residents of these islands are by no means all in favor of the proposal. These facts are illustrated by the number of letters, phone calls and personal congratulations I received from what were to me, until then, total strangers.

We were assured at many meetings that the cost of this proposed hospital would not exceed $200,000. Quite recently, Labour Minister Lyle Wick, during the past few days an anonymous pamphlet has been distributed, which shows the architectural estimate to be $272,465. As a practicing civil and structural engineer with world-wide experience in design, estimates and construction of all types of major works and buildings, I cannot recall one single instance where the tenders for a structure have been as low as the estimated cost. They have a habit of running anywhere from 10 to 50 per cent higher. We may therefore reasonably expect the actual cost of this proposal to be at least

Atom Power Stations, Present and Future

Electricity will pour next year from the atomic power station pictured above. Britain's first of 18 planned over the next ten years, it is nearing completion at Calder Hall, Cumberland. On the left is a drawing of another to rise on the rugged coast of Scotland at Dounreay. The ball-shaped center will be of steel to house the reactor, a "breeder" because it will produce more "fuel" than it consumes. The reactors of both stations will produce steam to drive turbines to produce the electricity.

Success

(Brandon Sun)

A successful man is one who can earn more money than his wife can spend. A successful woman is one who catches such a man.

$300,000. Of this, under the present arrangement we taxpayers will have to provide directly, $100,000.

Up to now, no protagonist has had the temerity (or I say courage?) to point out that this amount will have to be borrowed, since contractors do not wait 20 years for payment; so that we must add to the $100,000, the interest on that sum for 20 years at probably 5 per cent. This brings our direct indebtedness up to $150,000, which is getting very close to the originally stated TOTAL cost for the project.

How will this increased cost be met? Here the anonymous composer of the above mentioned pamphlet, once again attempts to mislead the taxpayer with that old "carrot hung before the donkey"—"reduced mill rates", set forth in bold black type. It is also stated that "the greater value in land and property and overall assessment, the less the individual taxpayer will have to pay for a hospital". Then why don't we wait until the assessment is so high, the individual taxpayer pays nothing?

Just how foolish or deliberately untruthful can one get?

If the writer of this pamphlet, himself (or herself) seriously believes what he (or she) has written, then it is obvious that the teaching of elementary arithmetic in our schools, leaves much to be desired. If he (or she) does not so believe, then the reason for anonymity becomes obvious. "Reduced mill rates" and "increased assessment" are cheap devices to bamboozle the taxpayer. One only has to consider them in their application to school costs.

The idea is beautifully simple. You require let us say, $1. You therefore assess your neighbor's property at $100 and FINE him 1 per cent for owning it. You get your dollar. After a while he starts to howl, so you assure him he will get relief. You'll reduce the percentage (the mill rate). You then reassess his property, telling him that it is now worth $200 which is supposed to make him feel very happy and prosperous. Willst he is in this happy daze, you present him with a bill calculated at only half the original percentage, but being based on the doubled assessment, you still (with tongue in cheek) get your dollar. The poor bemused sap is not supposed to notice this. Of course in actual practice it usually works out that the percentage decreases at a less rate than the assessment increases, so you end up by getting more than the original dollar.

Just study that little parable, and you realize that the idea of increased assessments indicating increased prosperity, is pure "poppycock". All they really indicate is

Reflections From the Past

10 YEARS AGO

A huge golden eagle, with a wing span of six feet six inches was shot this week by Jack Lannon, of Sidney Duck Farm. The bird had been preying on the ducks at the farm.

The Review's Book Review

"Captain Cut-Throat", by John Dickson Carr. Harper. 306 pp. $3.50.

It is a century and a half ago France under the rule of Napoleon. In fact, the New World was equally watchful, but without the resources to take any active part in the military or diplomatic opposition to the rapid expansion of the militarized Gauls.

This story of France in 1805 does not dwell for long periods on history. There is the armed state of France. The intrigue of France under the upstart emperor and the military preparedness, which is the thrust in the flesh of all Europe, is the background to the story. Hovering over the picture is Papa Fouché, minister of police and the patron saint of the later police states.

Fouché is the French equivalent of the Vicar of Bray. Wherever the latter survived a series of regimes in a kindly, though wavering manner, Fouché had survived a series of orders by intrigue and evil.

purpose of raising funds for Sidney Volunteer Fire Department.

30 YEARS AGO

Passengers aboard the Otter on Thursday morning enjoyed an unexpected early arrival at Pender Island, when the vessel ran aground in a thick fog near the wharf. Despite the warning cries of a crowd of people on the pier, the Otter slowly edged her way aground. The vessel was badly holed, but a canvas patch and all pumps working kept her afloat and enabled her to return to Victoria under her own steam.

Everett Goddard left Sidney at the beginning of the week for the prairies as the advance agent of the Tommy Clancy Comedy Company.

Mrs. H. B. Harris, of Pender Island, was a passenger on the Dixie Flyer, when it was wrecked in the State of Georgia recently. The lady, on her way to join her husband in Florida, escaped unhurt.

Wonderous Age

(Cincinnati Enquirer)

We sometimes think the world is getting too technical. A retail food chain recently proudly announced that it had sold 300 million doughnuts. Then it went on to say that a 600 mile an hour jet plane would take 23 1/2 hours to fly through that many doughnuts. Well, if we're going to be that spectacular, let's have a four-engine plane fly through 300 million chocolate eclairs!

At the head of it all is Napoleon, depicted as the master of intrigue and readily prepared to induce unrest of his own to eliminate unrest occasioned by circumstances.

Into this picture arrive the Briton and his wife. The story is the quite feasible development of their circumstances, with the somewhat improbable outcome.

It is highly readable and well worth the reading.

When a sentry at the army camp is killed by a dagger in the full light of brilliant floodlights the question arises, "How was he killed?" The incident occurs on several occasions and each time a note is left signed, "Captain Cut-throat". This is the mystery which runs through the story and to which the writer offers a reasonable explanation.

It is a mystery story of a period before mystery stories had become popular.—F.G.R.

HIGHEST FIGURE IN HISTORY IS REPORTED FOR YEAR BY BANK

Providing strong evidence of the widespread participation of its branches in the development of Canadian business from coast to coast, the Bank of Montreal reports the highest figures in its history for loans, deposits and investments for the 12 months ended October 31 last. Resources have increased by a quarter-of-a-million dollars to the unprecedented figure of $2,796,000,000, according to the 138th annual statement issued this week by B of M manager, G. C. Johnston.

Maintaining its traditionally strong liquid position, the B. of M. reported quick assets of $1,730 million, which is equal to 65 per cent of all its public liabilities.

Contributing heavily to this position is the large investment portfolio, valued at $1,214 million which—withstanding the enlarged demand for credit—shows an increase of $44 million over the total for investments a year ago.

ONE BILLION IN LOANS

The very substantial increase in loans is noteworthy, inasmuch as total advances have now passed the billion-dollar mark. Commercial and other loans rose $134 million and mortgage loans under the N.H.A. were up from 10 to 51 million dollars, while call loans, reflecting lessened activity in the securities market, showed a decline of $21 million. As a whole, loans rose $154 million to a total of $1,057,444,000.

Most notable of the increases in the rise in deposits to $2,591 million, up from $2,365 million a year ago.

With the completion during the year of subscriptions to the new issue of the bank's capital to a paid-up total of $45 million, the amount of the shareholders' equity has again shown substantial enlargement, running now to $139,134,215. This is made up of the rest fund of $92 million and undivided profits of $2,134,215, in addition to the paid-up capital of $45 million.

INCREASE IN EARNINGS

After providing for taxes of $7,034,000, the B. of M. reports earnings of $8,042,146 for 1955, compared with $7,344,274 a year ago.

From this shareholders received $6,521,346—half-a-million dollars less than the bank is paying in taxes. Total payments to shareholders in 1955 ran to $1.45 per share, compared with $1.40 a year ago.

Profits after dividend payments amount to $1,520,800 which added to the balance of undivided profits from 1954, brings the total to $4,134,215. From this, $2,000,000 has been transferred to rest account, leaving a balance of undivided profits of $2,134,215.

LESLIE GARRICK CHOSEN BY ASSOCIATION

A meeting of the Mayne Island Community Association was held in the hall on Tuesday, Nov. 22, when election of officers was held. Following were named to office: Leslie Garrick, president; Edwin Odberg, vice-president; Charles Murrell, secretary-treasurer; directors, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Hanson, Wm. Wilks, Richard Steele and Ben Gardner. Bureau delegates are W. Morson, C. Lord, W. Wilks and B. Gardner (alternate).

There was a very good attendance at the meeting and E. Bambrick came over from Galiano to speak on what he had found out on the bonding issue for the power project. It was arranged that Mr. Bambrick and Mr. Murrell would be at the hall on December 1 from 1 to 3 p.m. to receive applications for security bonds for the Power Commission.

SCIENCE SHRINKS PILES NEW WAY WITHOUT SURGERY

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain. Thousands have been relieved—without resort to surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dynone)—discovery of a famous scientific institute.

Now you can get this new healing substance in suppository or ointment form called Preparation 119. Ask for it at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Film To Depict Lung Operation

"One in 20,000", outstanding color motion picture on lung cancer, will be shown on Sunday night at 7:30 at the Rest Haven Seventh-day Adventist Church.

"One in 20,000" was recently filmed in co-operation with the American Medical Society, and under the auspices of the American Temperance Society.

The film shows the actual case history of a young man who developed cancer of the lung, and an actual operation for its correction is shown. Because the cancerous lung is removed in time, the young man lives.

According to latest statistics, in 1955 more than 20,000 Americans will die of lung cancer. The film is the story of "One in 20,000". On Friday night, Dec. 2, Evangelist Duncan presents another screen lecture on astronomy, speaking on the subject, "Are the Other Worlds Inhabited?", bringing to the residents of Sidney the latest finding of leading astronomers.

The straight fact is that the proposed new hospital is going to cost a definite sum of money for the next 20 years and every taxpayer will have a bill to meet. No juggling with assessments, rates, or the truth will alter nor ameliorate that fact. What we have to decide is whether we wish to assume that 20-year obligation. Each individual must decide for him- or her-self whether his future prospects warrant the assumption of the obligation, and vote accordingly. It is not the business of any individual or pressure group to attempt to force that decision one way or the other.

In conclusion I suggest that future literature dealing with public affairs should bear the name of its sponsors. Anonymous communications leave the implication that their authors either have a personal axe to grind or that they are ashamed of their own statements. They usually defeat themselves by ending up where they deserve to. In the waste basket.

Yours faithfully,

FROST IS DANGER TO WATER AND FIRE SERVICES IN EXTREMES

Recent announcement that water supplies in Ladysmith had been restricted by frost prompted an investigation of the hazards experienced by the Sidney and Brentwood services. The Review gained a detailed explanation of the precautions taken at Sidney to eliminate the danger of a supply failure in the event of extreme temperatures.

Coal fires are kept burning in the pumping stations to avoid any freeze-up in those locations. At the reservoirs on McTavish Road the base of the tanks is closed in to avoid cold draughts freezing the pipelines. The tanks are alternated twice daily to keep the water in a state of turbulence, thereby reducing any danger.

The hydrants in the area are so designed as to drain automatically when the water is turned off. This prevents freezing by taking the water below the frost level.

Similar precautions are taken on the fire trucks of Sidney and North Saanich Volunteer Fire Department. The trucks are not provided with antifreeze. They are stored in a heated building and while travelling to a fire the pump unit is operating keeping a constant flow through the lines. The pumping action causes a slight generation of heat and the flowing water is unlikely to freeze.

At one point on the transmission line from the McTavish Road tanks to the water district the main pipe is exposed. It lies beneath the water at Reay's Creek. It is located within an insulated box, which guards against freezing.

Similar precautions are taken at Brentwood and by the Central Saanich Volunteer Fire Department to protect equipment.

Native Daughter

First white woman to be born on Pender Island, Mrs. Nellie Pender Hamilton, aged 60 years, passed away in St. Joseph's hospital, Victoria, on Monday. She was the widow of the late Cyril G. Hamilton. Three brothers and one sister reside on Pender Island: Neptune, Percy and Geo. Grimmer and Mrs. Olive Clague. Funeral services and interment will take place on Pender Island on Thursday with Maynard's in charge of arrangements.

No Longer Junk

THE POOR WOMAN'S jewelry, called "junk" and sometimes even "junk" may now say far more to the latter description. Designed and made with care and precision, it is now being worn by some of the world's smartest women. This is a British version from a London designer. The paste stones of the flexible necklaces, bracelet and earrings are not in rhodium-plated silver.

EXPERIMENTAL FARM NOTES

WEEKLY REPORT OF NORTH SAANICH STATION

F. E. Orr, who has been employed at this farm since 1935, went on retirement as from the beginning of November. During recent years Mr. Orr has been the technician in charge of field work in our tree and small fruit department. Ill health has caused somewhat earlier retirement than official rules require. Mr. Orr's retirement following closely that of E. R. Hall, removes from the scene of our activities the second member in a valuable team of fruit experts.

FROZEN APPLES

The severe frosts from November 12 to November 16 did a lot of damage to a great variety of plants but the whole story may not be as black as some leaves and bark now indicate.

It is generally the terminal portions of woody growth that suffer most. Perhaps, for instance, with roses, the upper two-thirds of the wood is killed but good tissue and buds will be found near the ground level.

A few minor tests have been made here to determine if there has been any salvage value to frozen apples. In some cases picked apples not carefully stored were lightly frozen while in other cases fruit which was on the tree was frozen and all living tissue was killed.

It has been pleasantly surprising to find that completely frozen apples when thawed have made good juice even up to five days thawing. Apples in this class turned quite brown throughout and the juice from these fruits has been darker in color than is normally the case. The palatability of the juice has been pleasantly surprising. These apples were processed before fermentation had started or before rotting due to fungus organisms had become apparent.

If it is too late to salvage frozen fruit this year try to remember in case of another frosty disaster that freshly-thawed fruit has a lot of juicing value. There is good reason to believe that thawed apple juice makes as good a drink relatively as thawed ice.

While on the subject of apple juice it is too bad that more of our surplus apples don't go into juice than is presently the case. There are a few machines that permit extracting juice in the home or a very good substitute is to contact Arthur Aylard, Wains Cross Road, Deep Cove, who will do a limited amount of work on a custom basis. The homemade product is just as good as any that are purchased. Here is a final thought, if you don't like your apple juice cold try it as a hot drink in the evening or as a breakfast appetizer.

STRAWBERRIES

Our strawberry yields this year make us eligible for membership in the "five ton club". We are conducting an experiment entitled "The Use of Sawdust, Straw, Compost and Manure in the Production of Strawberries."

The yields for 1955 were very good from all treatments. The 2.5-inch sawdust mulch treatment yielded 6.5 tons per acre, 1-inch of sawdust incorporated annually 6.13 tons per acre, cut straw 2 tons per acre annually 5.59 tons per acre, compost of 20 cubic yards per acre, 5.44 tons per acre, and the check which had nothing added 5.16 tons per acre. The sawdust treatments significantly outyielded the other treatments.

In the sawdust incorporation treatment the sawdust was incorporated to a depth of about two inches so as to avoid mechanical damage to the roots. The sawdust in this treatment acted to quite a degree like a mulch. The increased yield is attributed to moisture conserved by the mulch. Irrigation water was not applied. This same experiment was conducted in another area during the years 1952-54 under less desirable soil conditions. The yields were much lower than those quoted above but the trend was the same.

Sawdust has disadvantages as far as strawberries are concerned in that pickers dislike it on account of silvers. Also, particles of sawdust cling to the berries and are difficult to clean even by washing. Shavings are not as objectionable from this standpoint.

An experiment testing the use of three varieties of oat, one variety of barley and one variety of wheat as nurse crops when seeding down forage mixtures was conducted by the farm. Both fall and spring planting dates were tested. The cereal nurse crops were harvested as seed.

Plant counts were made on the grass and legume species making up the sward after the cereals had been harvested and, also, on plots with which no nurse crop had been used.

The result showed that 66 per cent of the hay and pasture mixture was present on the plots grown without a companion crop, while only 10 per cent was present on the plots sown with a fall cereal companion crop. There was only a trace of the forage mixture present on the plots sown in the spring with a companion crop.

The use of companion crops when establishing forage mixtures depends on the supply of summer

Canada's Mr. Hockey

Foster Hewitt doesn't need any introduction to Canadians. Enough to say that he's on hand once again to broadcast the National Hockey League games every Saturday night—a weekly assignment he's had since the Maple Leaf Gardens opened in 1931. Hewitt holds a world's record for length of service in broadcasting; he started in 1923 when he was 18, and shortly afterwards made the first broadcast of a hockey game in Canada. Ever since then he's been so closely associated with the game that he is as well known to hockey fans as any of its greatest players. While in college he was an undefeated boxing champion, and has written many books on hockey.

SKUNKS DON'T LIKE B. O.
You've heard it said "you can tell if a skunk is around because you can smell it." Actually, a skunk is an exceptionally clean animal. It could have the run of the house, sleep on the chesterfield and would probably create no more nuisance than the average pet duck. A skunk will eject an unpleasant spray and obnoxious odour only as a last resort, when in fear of its life. A skunk will not foul its own coat or den with this weapon and actually appears to have as much dislike for the odour as do humans.

moisture. This experiment was conducted under dry conditions and in locations of more favorable moisture the forage mixtures would not suffer as severely. In addition the companion crops were allowed to mature for seed production. If they had been removed early in the spring as silage or had been kept grazed the effect on the grass mixture would not have been as severe.

Companion crops are not recommended for use when establishing forage mixtures in dry locations and when used should be removed as early as possible in the spring as pasture or silage.

TAKE THAT, and THAT!

Before a new telescope-type stretcher, made of nylon and aluminum, was adopted by the Canadian Armed Forces, it got the works. They jumped on it, dropped rocks on it, tossed it out of aircraft and army lorries, froze it in ice, buried it in mud and sand. They finally gave up—and placed the order.

Its lightness and compactness makes this rugged stretcher a natural for everything from northern air-rescue work to the needs of hospital, police, Civil Defence and other authorities. Another job for Canada's aluminum and the men who work wonders with it.

BE CAREFUL WHERE SEALS ARE AFFIXED

B.C. Tuberculosis Society and the Post Office have combined to remind people the Christmas Seals should be kept clear of regular postage on mail.

"Place the seals on the backs of envelopes or on the sides and bottoms of parcels," said Harold Huggins, director of education for the B.C. Tuberculosis Society.

Postal officials said this would help to avoid confusion during the peak mail loads experienced at this time of year.

The TB Society has distributed 400,000 sheets of TB Christmas Seals throughout B.C. in its annual drive to raise funds for its year-round preventive program against the disease.

The post office also released dates for Christmas mail to the U.S., Newfoundland and across Canada.

Nearly $2,000,000 worth of fishing tackle is made in Canada each year.

North Saanich And Royal Oak Tie For F. N. Wright Trophy

North Saanich high school volleyball teams visited Mount Newton high school last Friday evening for four games as a part of the F. N. Wright tournament.

In the junior divisions North Saanich teams had little trouble in defeating their Mount Newton counterparts. The girls won 15-4, 15-8 and the boys 16-14 and 15-6.

The Mount Newton senior girls took two games and two points from the North Saanich group with 15-8, 15-6 scores.

North Saanich senior boys also made it two straight over Mount Newton at 15-10 and 15-7.

The tournament resulted in six F. N. Wright Trophy points for North Saanich and two for Mount Newton.

Royal Oak and North Saanich high schools meet at Royal Oak this Friday for their section of the volleyball tourney.

THREE OUT OF FOUR
Royal Oak volleyball teams took three matches out of four in games played against North Saanich high school teams at the Royal Oak gymnasium on Friday evening.

In the junior girls' division Royal Oak won the first, lost the second and then rallied to take the last game for a two matches to one victory.

The most exciting game of the evening was the junior boys' fixture. North Saanich took the first game and Royal Oak the second with the thrills coming in the third game as the teams edged up the score board, point by point, with never more than two points separating the well-balanced teams. At the 14-13 mark North Saanich was able to gain the much needed counter to make a 15-13 win.

The first game of the senior girls' match went to extra points with Royal Oak winning 16-14, they then went on to take the second game 15-8.

Royal Oak senior boys gave an excellent display of ball handling in the last fixture, winning both their games 15-7 and 15-10.

As a result of the evening's play Royal Oak added six points to its F. N. Wright trophy score, to make a total of 22; North Saanich added two points to take second spot with a total of 18 points; Mount Newton lies third.

Table tennis, badminton and basketball will be the athletic activities for the post-Christmas period.

ANNUAL BAZAAR YIELDS RECORD TOTAL AT HALL

The Salt Spring high school students' council held its annual Christmas bazaar recently in the Mahon hall, which was filled to capacity with parents, residents and others. The bazaar proved most successful in every way and realized the sum of $550.18, its largest amount to date.

at the Facts behind the Figures

No doubt about it, we Canadians have, on the whole, had a good year in 1955. And, although you may not think of it, the facts show that you personally played a useful role in helping Canada reach its great height of prosperity during the past year.

For it is your money, together with the savings of millions of other Canadians across the country, that helps turn the wheels of our industries and our commerce. The B of M puts your savings to work, in the form of loans and investments, so that Canadian enterprise can have the day-to-day financing it needs to build, to employ, and to produce. Only with such financial assistance are Canadians able to enjoy the benefits of a high standard of living.

Clearly, the facts behind the figures in the B of M's 1955 annual report show that the dollars you save work hard and long to secure not only your own future, but also the future of our nation...

THE MONEY YOU DEPOSIT: At the end of the Bank's year, October 31, 1955, over two million Canadians had on deposit at the B of M the sum of $2,591,326,311—the highest year-end total on record. Although much of this money belongs to institutions and business firms, more than half of these deposits represent the personal savings of Canadians in every walk of life . . . savings that are bringing benefits to you and to Canada.

THE MONEY WE INVEST: At the close of the year, the B of M had $975,361,319 invested in high-grade government bonds and other public securities which have a ready market. This money is helping to finance government projects for the betterment of the country and the welfare of Canadians at large. Other securities held by the Bank—which include a diversified list of high-quality short-term industrial issues—bring total investments to $1,214,550,875.

THE MONEY WE LEND: The money you save at the B of M is helping to ensure our country's expansion and progress—in the form of loans to Canadian farmers, miners, fishermen, oil men, lumbermen and ranchers; to industrial and business enterprises; to Provincial and Municipal Governments; and to salaried people in all walks of life. As of October 31, B of M loans totalled $1,057,444,001—the highest in the Bank's history. In untold ways, these dollars are contributing dynamically to the maintenance and improvement of our standard of living.

My bank has just completed its 138th year with resources amounting to $2,796,174,064—the highest figure in its history. The B of M's growth is part of the growth of this community and of all Canada, and I am proud of the part my customers have in this story of progress.

CANADIAN GIRL FACES QUANDARY

She Was Either British and Broke or American and Affluent

(By Doris Leedham Hobbs)

When you are young, experiences have to be at first hand, as you grow older, a new and delightful pleasure is added to your life, it is the pleasure of experiencing the doings and adventures of others at "secondhand!"

Last Monday, I listened enthralled, for nearly two hours, to the impressions, doings and pleasures experienced by a young friend, in her twenties, who has just returned from a six-month visit to Europe. The mention of "Canada" literally opened a door for her everywhere she went, for Miss Ruth Scott, second daughter of Col. Gerald Scott, D.S.O., C.B., and Mrs. Scott, of Miller Ave., is very proud of her Canadian birth.

In Italy she stressed her British citizenship because as she said, Italians think of the British as "poor Brits—no money." Then, as her clothes were from this continent she was often taken for an American and "All Americans are rich!"

Ruth is a girl of great character, determination and charm. All the time she served in the Canadian Air Force, being sent from place to place across this vast country, she saved her pay, planning to spend it on foreign travel.

"How worth while it all was!" Ruth said.

And so, this young Canadian started off from Victoria, having planned her entire travels without benefit of agencies, zig-zagged across the United States by bus, "to see as much of the country as possible," picked up the boat at Boston, after a hectic three days in New York, and so to England.

Her father's relatives gave her a place in Broadstone, Dorset, a place famed for its lovely golf course. There, rolling hills, distant view of Poole Harbour, sand dunes, pines and heather delighted her artistic sense, for Ruth, who comes of a family in which there are many talented artists, is also determined to put on canvas her impressions and memories.

London, although crammed with interest, was too vast for the kind of life that appealed to her, and south west England, Devon and Cornwall were much more attractive and "open-air."

Her travels on the continent were packed with interest, Switzerland, Belgium, France, Holland, Italy with the impressions of Rome, Venice, Florence, Genoa were never to be forgotten delights.

Air Force friends from Canada were stationed here and there in Germany, and gave her hospitality, where she saw the beauties of Heidelberg and the Black Forest.

Rotterdam showed a tremendous American influence, but Holland in general was lovely, so clean and Oh! so kindly!

Everywhere this Canadian girl, born in little Royal Oak, of Irish parentage, met people in England, educated people, who had little idea of our life in Canada in 1955! Many concepts being years out of date, so quick had been the growth of civilization in this vast country of ours.

Her independence, practical sense and capabilities almost staggered the older generations, who welcomed her as a "breath of fresh air" and loaded her with kindness.

To be taken to a superlative lunch by her father's old adjutant, now General Sir Arthur Parsons, and to hear new stories of her father's life in N.W. India, was a never-to-be-forgotten thrill. It was good to hear that one of Ruth's pleasures was to take a book, her cigarettes and a bicycle and to spend whole mornings among the heather, absorbing the comfortable beauty that is England.

Talking of comfort, cold is accepted in almost war-time austerity, and Ruth longed to pick up her relatives and put them in a Canadian house with its warmth and central heating.

GREETINGS!

Here we are again... I will try once more. I promise you that I will watch carefully the expenditure of each village taxpayers' dollar.

About the village garbage dump, I say this: If anyone, or any group, comes forward with a better proposition, I believe every Commissioner should listen. I will insist that one Commissioner be appointed to supervise the dump, so if any unsatisfactory dumping condition exists, the man to blame would be this specially-appointed Commissioner... I would be willing to assume this unenviable task.

JOE BILGERI

About restricted parking on Beacon Avenue: I think that before any step is taken, a comprehensive investigation should be made, and if any restriction prove necessary, it should be put into effect initially only in one block. If restrictions prove satisfactory in this way, the zones could be expanded gradually.

I stand for a program of sidewalk extension and improvements to streets in the village.

Yours truly,

JOE BILGERI.

Hospital Board Attends Meetings On Islands

Between November 12 and 24, 21 patients were admitted to the Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital including the following: from Salt Spring Island, 11; Mayne Island, 5; Pender, 1; Galiano, 3; Vancouver Island, 1.

A donation of 10 aprons was received from Mrs. L. K. Davis.

The hospital board accompanied the returning officer, Maurice Atkins, to Galiano, Pender and Mayne on his launch Barbara II to attend the series of meetings arranged before the voting for the money by-law on December 8.

On Thursday, members of the hospital board received a good hearing at Galiano. They included Mrs. Warren Hastings, John Sturdy and W. E. Dipple. At North Pender, the following attended a good meeting: Mrs. Hastings, Mr. Sturdy, W. M. Mout and Reginald Price.

The board representatives were well received at Mayne Island on November 29. A visit will be made at Saturna Island as well.

The meeting at Fulford will take place on November 30 in the Community Hall, and at Ganges on December 6 at 2.30 in the Mahon Hall.

Seventy-five gauge hosiery—the finest ever attempted in North America—is being made in a New Brunswick textile mill.

Order's Jubilee

REV. FR. I. LECLERC

Writing in the diocesan monthly magazine, "The Torch", recently, Rev. Fr. Irvine Leclerc, recalls the history of the religious order to which he belongs, the Society of Mary Montfort.

The priests at Sidney, East and West Saanich, Ganges, Fulford, Pender Island, Galiano Island and Mayne Island, in addition to a large part of Vancouver Island, are all members of this order.

The Saanich priest notes that the order is 250 years old, having been founded in Potters, France, in 1705. The religious community was already 200 years old when the first Montfort Fathers arrived on Vancouver Island in the summer of 1903, at the invitation of Archbishop Orth.

The founder of the order, St. Louis de Montfort, died at St. Laurent sur Savres, in northern France in 1716. At that time the order included two priests and seven brothers. Problems with the civil disturbances which plagued France about that time saw little expansion of the order. By 1680 there were still only 40 members. Between 1880 and 1955 the religious community expanded 40 times and today boasts 1,600 members. In Canada there are 187 members. Remainder are spread throughout the world. Jubilee Mass was celebrated at Duncan by Bishop James Hill on Monday, Nov. 21, to mark the 250th year.

Among the Montfort Fathers in this area are Rev. Fr. Leclerc, Rev. Fr. J. Camirand and Rev. Fr. M. LaPlante.

Out of The Mixing Bowl

House Hunting Grim Business

(By Muriel D. Wilson)

Anyone who starts to look for a new place to live will tell you what a frustrating business it can be. You start out full of enthusiasm with a clear picture in your mind and a piece of paper a mile long listing all your requirements.

We started out by looking at properties listed in the newspapers. It is surprising how unlike the ad, a house or a location can be and I don't mean that the ads are untrue. Take waterfront for instance... you picture a sandy beach and find instead a muddy tide flat or that the beach has 200 steps leading down to it. It is waterfront alright but not the kind you are looking for. Several times we found just the right location only to discover that the house was too old or the heating facilities were inadequate (after all we were running away from stoves and woodpiles). In our case price was a factor and though we knew we had a champagne taste and a beer pocket, we hoped for a miracle.

DIFFERENT VIEWPOINTS

We turned to real estate agents who tore their hair and put me down as a "queer" when I specified a crooked tree as a must. I wanted a garden... one ready made, where the hard work was already done, where someone else had planted the roses. Perhaps the thing that made it so difficult was that Jim's "mums" were different to mine. Creature comforts were at the top of his list... he said they were more important than a view.

It is strange but looking for a house is something like looking for a husband... what you finally decide on often has little relation to what you thought you were looking for. It is too long ago to remember my specifications for a husband but one thing I do recall

I was not going to marry an Englishman or a commercial traveller. I got both and it was a happy choice. May our selection of property turn out as well. At least there is one advantage in buying a house over marrying a man... you can always sell a house.

Now snugly settled in Suburbia with one foot in the city and the other foot in the country we are looking forward to the dubious advantages that are attached to that deep seated idea in human minds that if you collect yourself and your paraphernalia and transport all of it to a fresh spot, the pasture will certainly be greener, the sky bluer and the winds tempered. "LITTLE EVA"

Today I am a little sad... Shasta the old Olds has been replaced by a tiny cherub of a car. When we drove off leaving Shasta in the used car lot I felt like the man who has sent his faithful old horse to the glue factory. We have named our baby car "Little Eva" in the hope that her disposition will be as angelic as her namesake.

Recently newspapers have been overflowing with disaster due to the gripping cold spell. Among the welter of news regarding burst pipes, frozen car blocks and gales at sea I came across one cheering item. It was by the Garden Man who tells us that next year there will be fewer earwigs and slugs in our gardens on account of the present low temperatures. Cheers!

Can you hear the patter of little hoofs? That's Rudolph the reindeer with the red nose... he brought Santa to town this week. Shades of grandmother's red flannel petticoat! Just listen to what the tots can expect to find under this year's Christmas tree... toys will imitate all the latest innovations of the adult world, pedal type cars with wide wrap around windshields and flush fender lines, tiny toasters with pop up action, chemistry sets this Christmas will come equipped with a sample of uranium ore. Beter watch out you parents of smart lads... first thing you know Junior will be manufacturing

HE FEELS GREAT... but he wants to be sure he doesn't have tuberculosis. In its earliest stages when TB is easiest to cure, the disease has no outward symptoms. But an X-ray can spot early TB. When you buy Christmas Seals, you help find the unknown cases of TB.

an atom bomb in your basement. On the startling side, little sister could find a cow with rubber udders that can be milked or a rabbit with a zipper stomach from which little rabbits emerge. Well really.

MORE ABOUT LIBRARY

owned by the lower Vancouver Island municipalities.

Cost to Central Saanich last year, with nine month of bookmobile service, amounted to $5,200. This year $6,400 has been budgeted for the service. Under the new scheme it has been estimated that the cost to Central Saanich would amount to about $5,600, which is an estimated figure. The future costs can only be estimated and depend on the incidence of borrowing during the year. If, as it appears, Central Saanich borrowing has reached a level which is likely to be maintained and if other municipalities continue their rising patronage of the service, then costs will graduate downwards.

HIGH LEVEL

Reading is at a very high level in Central Saanich. This is indicated by a recent survey. The library and teachers in the municipality carried out a general review of the picture. It showed that 85 per cent of books borrowed were read. Of the remaining 15 per cent a number were read to the primary grades by the parents, bringing the percentage of reading to a very impressive level. Ratepayers will be called upon to decide whether this service is justified in face of the cost or whether it should be curtailed.

The municipality levies a tax on ratepayers of $2 per annum. This has no relation to the actual cost of the service. It is the figure, until recently, arbitrarily set by the provincial government for the purpose of raising funds for library service. Whether a municipality imposes the tax rests with the council concerned. There is no suggestion in the provincial provision that this will meet the actual costs of the service. The figure was recently raised to $2.50 by the government, but it was not necessarily estimated that the increase would cover library services in any municipality imposing the tax.

Freezing rain at Vancouver restricted flying at the week-end. Only one plane arrived at Patricia Bay on Sunday.

GUIDE NOTES

A very interesting event took place last Monday evening in the Guide and Brownie hall when Verlyn East, Marla Wilson, Lorraine Knutsen, Ruth Jacobsen, Dorothy Ditlevsen, Rose Couling, Dianna Walker and Sharon Beswick flew up to join their big sisters the Guides. There were about 45 mothers present and Commissioner Mrs. Freeman King.

Fifteen girls also received their golden bars, and seven received their golden hands. Fourteen service stars were also presented by the commissioner.

The mothers were shown two crib-size quilts which the Brownies had made and which are to be given to the Save the Children committee, also tray cards which the girls have made for Christmas Day at Rest Haven and a scrap book which is not yet quite finished. Twenty-four small gifts were tied up for the adopted Pack in Ilford, England.

After the ceremonies the leaders assisted by the Guides served tea and cookies from a table prettily arranged by the Tawny Owls.

The Brownies would like to take this opportunity of saying how much they appreciate the work that has been done on the hall by the Scout and Cub committee.

COSTS MORE HERE BUT HE WILL MOVE

Dick Sisetski, of Glenella, Man., left his farm covered with two and a half feet of snow last week, to fly out to Sidney for a visit with his brother, Harry, of Sixth St. After enjoying the mild climate of the Saanich Peninsula, he plans to dispose of his farming interests and move here.

The visitor found that living costs are higher here. At Glenella, he said, chickens sell for 17 cents a pound, while eggs are 35 cents a dozen.
